

News

from  Court Street United Methodist ChurchThe Chimnes*Nonsense

But they did not believe the women, because their words seemed to them like nonsense.

Luke 24:11 NIV

Very early on the first day of the week, Mary Magdalene, Joanna, Mary the mother of James, and the others entered an empty tomb. The stone to the tomb was rolled away. They entered to attend to Jesus' dead body, but instead encountered two celestial beings, who reminded them of what Jesus had shared with his followers about his ultimate sacrifice; the women returned to tell the disciples what they had experienced. The disciples did not believe the women's story because it sounded like nonsense.

Peter decided to run to the tomb and check it out for himself. Peter arrives at the tomb. He bends over, and finds only strips of linen. He leaves, figuratively speaking, scratching his head. Yes, Peter, like all of the disciples, did not get what God had done in Christ. Paul in his first letter to the church in Corinth wrote: "For the message of the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God."¹ In reference to God, that which makes no sense to us is not necessarily nonsense. What Peter did that day, running to the empty tomb and verifying its emptiness, was the beginning of a lifetime of nonsense. We all must verify the emptiness of the tomb, in order to begin our journey home. We are Easter people. What God has done and is doing in Christ makes no sense, and is nonsense to those perishing.

However, as it is written:

"What no eye has seen,
what no ear has heard,

and what no human mind has conceived"—

the things God has prepared for those who love him these are the things God has revealed to us by his Spirit.²

Grace,
Pastor Cal

The Nightingale
by Kristin Hannah
at Diane Risley's
4850 Black Oak Trail

In love we find out who we want to be. In war we find out who we are.

In the quiet village of Carriveau, Vianne Mauriac says goodbye to her husband, Antoine, as he heads for the Front. She doesn't believe that the Nazis will invade France ... but invade they do, in droves of marching soldiers, in caravans of trucks and tanks, in planes that fill the skies and drop bombs upon the innocent. When a German captain requisitions Vianne's home, she and her daughter must live with the enemy or lose everything. Without food or money or hope, as danger escalates all around them, she is forced to make one impossible choice after another to keep her family alive.

Vianne's sister, Isabelle, is a rebellious eighteen-year-old girl, searching for purpose with all the reckless passion of youth. While thousands of Parisians march into the unknown terrors of war, she meets G etan, a partisan who believes the French can fight the Nazis from within France, and she falls in love as only the young can ... completely. But when he betrays her, Isabelle joins the Resistance and never looks back, risking her life time and again to save others.

With courage, grace and powerful insight, bestselling author Kristin Hannah captures the epic panorama of WWII and illuminates an intimate part of history seldom seen: the women's war. The Nightingale tells the stories of two sisters, separated by years and experience, by ideals, passion and circumstance, each embarking on her own dangerous path toward survival, love, and freedom in German-occupied, war-torn France--a heartbreakingly beautiful novel that celebrates the resilience of the human spirit and the durability of women.

LOCAL MISSIONS COMMITTEE (CHIMES) REPORT 2016 – FIRST QUARTER REPORT

Members: Barbara ADAMS, Barbara FERRY, Helen GIBBONS, Margaret RHOADS, Carol SCOTT, JoAnne TKADLETZ, and Susan ZIMMERMAN. (A SPECIAL THANK YOU TO OUR FORMER CHAIRPERSON SHIRLEY HOLLEY, FOR HER YEARS OF SERVICE TO LOCAL MISSIONS).

Local Missions begins 2016 by thanking Court Street Members for their generosity and especially their faithfulness to the Communion Service 'LOVE OFFERING'. The white baskets put out at each Communion Service facilitate giving to LOCAL MISSIONS. Also, church member's donations made by mail, are so greatly appreciated. To all those faithful to Local Missions THANK YOU AGAIN.

Last year, two SPECIAL donations were received, one from Stan Tunnell and one from the estate of Melvin Schallberg. "Melvin Schallberg desired that the funds designated to the Memorial of Scott Schallberg be transferred into Local Missions Love Offering Account. Scott Schallberg's generous spirit lives on in the good works of the church".

Please stop by the BULLETIN BOARD outside of the church office and read the thank you letters sent to Court Street Local Missions from Rockford social service agency recipients. YOU make these thank you letters possible.

 The following list represents organizations which have received YOUR donations in 2016. These donations sent from LOCAL Missions, would not have been possible without YOU.

Health & Wellness Updates From our Parish Nurse...

One of the National Health Observances for April is IBS (Irritable Bowel Syndrome). IBS is a long-term digestive condition. Many people remain undiagnosed and are unaware that their symptoms indicate a medically recognized disorder.

What does “irritable” mean? It means that nerve endings in the bowel wall, which control muscle function and affect sensation of the gut, are unusually sensitive. The impact of IBS varies with each person and symptom episodes are often unpredictable. In the United States alone it affects over 30 million people. It can affect male, female, young, and old. This can relate to one in seven to one in ten Americans. The cause of IBS is not completely understood. Many times no structural abnormality that would explain symptoms shows up on tests. There are possible factors like genetics, infections, and trauma that may predispose someone to IBS. Although there is currently no cure for IBS, there are ways to improve symptoms and feel better.

If one’s daily routine is often ruled by intestinal discomfort, you need to seek medical help and obtain a proper diagnosis. IBS is characterized by abdominal pain or discomfort associated with changes in bowel habit (diarrhea and/or constipation), bloating or a sense of gaseousness, along with other symptoms. The pain is often relieved by having a bowel movement and at times, IBS can be worsened after eating. There can be times when symptoms flare up as well as times of remission when the symptoms can diminish or disappear. IBS may be complex, but there are ways to help manage it.

After a diagnosis, the first line of treatment for IBS includes general measures such as: establishing and maintaining an effective patient-doctor relationship and obtaining education about IBS. IBS may not be easy to talk to your doctor about, but it is essential; do not be afraid to talk to your doctor. Good communication during the course of care has been shown to significantly increase patient satisfaction, symptom improvement, daily function, and quality of life. One also needs to make lifestyle changes which may be associated with symptoms. “Lifestyle” refers to things in your life you have control over. It means to evaluate dietary or stress related factors with your health care provider. Stress can often be a culprit with IBS flares. If lifestyle changes do not completely relieve IBS symptoms, a number of medications may be helpful and will need to be discussed.

IBS is often called a brain-gut disorder because it usually involves the large intestine (colon) and small intestine with disturbances of intestinal bowel (gut) motor function (motility) and sensation. These gut related activities are regulated by the brain. When stress hormones are released, they affect the mind and gut simultaneously.

“Stress” is a term doctors use to describe normal response in the body that are needed for health and survival. One way to understand IBS is that there is an increased gastrointestinal response to stress. Stressors are any factors that produce stress. People suffering with IBS have to work with developing a management plan to help decrease symptoms and improve quality of life. Since lifestyle choices and stressors are so individual, plans have to be made individually.

The digestive tract contains trillions of bacteria. Research is currently showing that the composition of these bacteria may affect health & disease. There is now some evidence that certain probiotics may help improve IBS symptoms. There is also a potential role for some “bad” bacteria residing in the gut to be associated with IBS symptoms in some people. Clinical trials have shown that antibiotics, which reduce or alter the bacteria in the gut, may relieve the symptoms of IBS.

Please seek help, if needed. The International Foundation for Functional Gastrointestinal Disorders (IFFGD) is a not-profit organization that can offer information and support. Contact IFFGD at 1-888-964-2001. Facebook.com/IFFGD or visit IBS.org

“Praise Him with the clash of cymbals, praise him with resounding cymbals”

Court Street United Methodist Church and Haskell School are partnering to form an elementary rhythm school that will be based at Court Street. The pilot period of the program will run from June 7 to July 12 every Tuesday and Thursday from 12PM to 1PM. After a comprehensive evaluation of the pilot period by both CSUMC and Haskell, the program will go full-swing beginning July 26 and ending December 20, every Tuesday and Thursday from 3:00PM to 4:00PM. The program is open to all Court Street youth. Haskell faculty will recruit from/chaperone their school’s students, and James Marck will teach the class. Children who exhibit exemplary discipline will be graduated to ringing in Court Street UMC’s handbell choir, JuBellation, as they mature.

Pilot Period Course Content (June 7-July 12):

- Simple Meter (Common time, cut-time)
- Compound meter (6/8 time)
- Duration (whole note, half note, quarter note, eighth)
- Intro to bracketed rhythms (triplets)
- Intro to rolls

Full-swing Course Content (July 26-December 20):

- Simple meter (Common time, cut-time, 3/4)
- Compound meter (6/4, 6/8, 9/8, and 12/8 time)
- Duration (whole note, half note, quarter note, eighth note, sixteenth note, thirty-second notes, dotted values)
- Bracketed rhythms (triplets, pentuplets, sextuplets)
- Rolls

What we need: We are looking for donations of or for the following items:

- 1) Drum sticks and mallets
- 2) Floor toms
- 3) Concert snares and stands
- 4) Rubber practice heads
- 5) Music stands

Please contact CSUMC’s music director, James Marck, for leads on potential donors, or to enlist youth, or for any questions.

For all of you starting to think of home and garden projects for the spring, the Scrip committee wants to remind you we have cash and carry cards ($25 each) for Home Depot, Lowe’s and Menards. Remember that if you plan to shop at these businesses your purchase of the cards will help us support Court Street Methodist Church! Thank you and hope to see you at the Scrip table soon.
