Now is the Time!

¹⁴ For if you remain silent at this time, relief and deliverance for the Jews will arise from another place, but you and your father's family will perish. And who knows but that you have come to your royal position for such a time as this?" Esther 4:14 NIV

This responsive dialogue is between Esther (Jewish Princess), one of many wives to King Xerxes, and Mordecai, Esther's cousin. Esther wanted to know why Mordecai was lamenting and sitting in sackcloth and ashes. Mordecai sent her an authentic account of the whole matter, with a charge to her to intercede with the king in this matter: Mordecai told her all that had happened unto him, what a temper Haman (top noble to King Xerxes) had against him for not bowing to him. Esther informed Mordecai, that she could not, without peril of her life, address the king, and that Mordecai had put a great hardship upon her in urging her to do it. Mordecai responds: And who knows but that you have come to your royal position for such a time as this?

'Now is the time for all good men to come to the aid of their country.' That was the statement I typed on the customer's teletype equipment after troubleshooting and resolving their equipment problem. There was no secret message or code in that statement, but it rotated the print head through its positioning capacity. I was contemplating the circumstance and time in which we (CSUMC) find ourselves as we navigate the future God has set before us. I realized that there are some profound truths about troubleshooting the uncertain, that I pray will resonate and inspire you to continue the journey.

- 1. Have an attitude of openness. Be open to where God is leading you. Esther's situation in the court soon became perilous. Mordecai saw that this situation had the potential for something great to happen.
- 2. Be willing to take risks. Esther evaluated the situation, and decided to risk her life. "I and my maids will also fast as you do; after that I will go to the king, though it is against the law, and if I perish, I perish." (4:16)
- 3. Have an attitude of gratitude. When we're facing uncertainty, we can say to God, "I don't know what you have in mind, but thank you for the opportunity."
- 4. Be an agent of change. God intends that we will be agents of change. We know that this change occurs in a way that only we -- because each of us is uniquely gifted

is to be a welcoming,
nurturing,
serving community of Christ.

Outstanding Volunteer for July is... Gail Palmer

Gail is a life-long member of Court Street UMC. She grew up active in our Sunday school and youth activities, and her parents were proud members of Court Street.

Most of her life Gail has been singing in our choirs. She helped organize the music library and she sang with our group at Carnegie Hall in New York in 2017.

Outside of her choir involvement she has many other church activities. Gail is a faithful member of the quilters group and is treasurer of Court Street's United Methodist Women. She is also part of a committee that helps plan funeral luncheons. Gail enjoys participating in the church Chatterbox group.

Gail is a retired elementary education teacher. She is married to Glenn and they have a son, Greg.

Thank you, Gail, for your continual volunteerism at Court Street United Methodist Church.

Thank you for all the volunteers who helped make Garden

Bazaar 2018 a huge success. The weather finally participated with 2 great days for shopping. With great weather and, even better, help, we were able to put $3,500 towards the new air handler. Thanks again for the great help and look forward to next year.

Haskell needs - July & August

We still need a few backpacks for some of the new students at Haskell. They have about 20 left from the many (75) you purchased last year. Drug stores and dollar stores should start having sales on them soon. We don't want any student using a grocery bag for their books.

Health & Wellness From our Parish Nurse...

Since I recently helped facilitate a diabetes self-management class through Lifescape, I would like to write about cholesterol. Our dietary choices can have a major impact on our cholesterol levels which can increase or decrease our risk for cardiovascular disease and stroke.

Our blood contains two kinds of cholesterol. The LDL cholesterol is considered the "bad" type. A good way I learned to remember the LDL level is that it stands for "Little Devil Level." The LDL forms the waxy deposits (plaque) in one's arteries. The HDL cholesterol is called the good, "Happy," type due to the fact that HDL particles help to remove the LDL from the bloodstream. We want our LDL level to be low and our HDL level to be high.

Having elevated LDL is partially due to our genes and gender. After menopause, a woman's LDL levels tend to rise, and increased LDL also tends to run in families. However, remember our dietary habits are also a key factor in lowering or raising cholesterol levels.

Dietary fiber is the part of plant foods that isn't broken down in your digestive system. There are two forms: insoluble and soluble fiber. Insoluble fiber doesn't change much as it passes through our digestive system. Soluble fiber absorbs water and forms a gel-like substance as you digest it, and it helps to keep you feeling fuller longer. Diets that are rich in soluble fiber are associated with lowering the amount of LDL in your bloodstream. One should aim at eating 25-30 grams of dietary fiber daily from fruits, vegetables, and whole grains. Animal sourced foods do not contain fiber.

Choose Healthy Fats: Fats also come in "good" & "bad" varieties. Unsaturated fats (mono, and poly-unsaturated) are key nutrients in plant foods that lower LDL cholesterol. Again, remember the majority of your dietary fat should come from plant foods. Trans fats and saturated fats are associated with elevated LDL levels and a higher risk of cardiovascular disease and stroke. The produced trans fats are found in processed foods that have partially hydrogenated oil. The United States Food & Drug Administration has instructed food manufacturers to remove partially hydrogenated oils from processed foods. Foods highest in saturated fat include red & processed meats, butter, whole milk, cheese, and dairy-based desserts like ice cream, and cheesecake. A few plant foods such as palm, palm kernel, and coconut oils are also high in saturated fats.

Eat More: fruits and vegetables such as apples, avocados, lentils, oranges, salmon, oatmeal, sunflower seeds, sweet potatoes, vegetable oil, walnuts, and whole-grain bread.

Eat Less: bacon, butter, donuts, french fries, hot dogs, poultry with the skin, pork sausage, pre-packaged cookies, red meat, salami, sausage, white bread, whole fat milk, and cheese.

To reduce your LDL level: exercise for 30-40 minutes most days of the week. Regular activity is linked with an improved HDL level as well. Eat salmon, mackerel, or other fatty fish twice a week. These foods are high in omega-3 fatty acids. Maintain a healthy weight; losing weight if you are obese or overweight can often improve your cholesterol profile and overall health. Check with your physician or health care provider to make a successful treatment plan that you can and will follow. It is rewarding to make a plan and to see the improvements in your blood work, but to also notice the rewards by the way you feel.

Offered Before & After Worship

We are saving Box Tops for Education

These little Box Tops are worth $.10 each to our schools. Each school can earn up to $20,000 a year, and use the money for anything they need.

There is a collection bag outside the Church Office and also in the Narthex. The Campbell Soup Labels for Education program has ended. But let's keep saving those Box Tops for Education!

Save the Date: Sunday, July 22nd

Have you heard the term 'YAVO' at church or in the community? Did you know that YAVO (Youth Against Violence Organization) meets three times each week in our church? Teresa Jordan, of YAVO, will be speaking on Sunday, July 22nd, about this not-for-profit program. She will talk during the worship service, and then will continue sharing for a brief time in the sanctuary, immediately following the service. Come and hear more about this important ministry, ask questions, and learn how we can support their cause to prevent delinquency.

The approved motion will now permit all of the silver coins collected to be directed to the Waffles & Worship 8AM Ministry. As many of you are aware, Waffles & Worship is an outreach ministry on the first Sunday of each month, where members and neighbors come to eat breakfast and worship together. In addition, all pennies collected in the offering plates will be directed to the Pennies for Rosecrance campaign, for their treatment and rehabilitation programs. We appreciate your support of these two great programs.

MUSIC

MINISTRY

From our Director of Music...

Pick-up Choir - On Sunday, August 19th we will have a Pick-Up choir for any interested singers. You don't have to read any music, and the best part is it's only one rehearsal. The rehearsal will be at 8:30 a.m. in the choir room. We will practice one song to sing for the anthem and a choir response at the end of the service. Contact Jack Armstrong if you are interested: gogo234@att.net or 815-742-7415.

Calling all singers/instrumentalists. If you would like to sing or play a solo for a service this summer. Or, if you know of someone, a relative or friend (they don't have to be a member of Court Street), who would like to take part in a worship service, contact Jack Armstrong at: gogo234@att.net or 815-742-7415.

Methodist Monday Reminder:

We give treats and smiles to our friends walking past Court St. UMC. Treats are nothing expensive -- maybe a bottle of water and a baby candy bar. It's a fun way to show love to our community. Thank you to all of you who have volunteered!

Do not neglect to show hospitality to strangers, for by doing that some have entertained angels without knowing it. ~ Hebrews 13:2

May was a busy month for Jeremiah Development. We finished Love Rockford with ideas for improvement for next year. We are updating our website, so be sure to go to jeremiahdevelopment.org for our most recent activities. The garden has been the highlight of this month. We have over 20 volunteers that brave the 90° heat for our first "official" weekend. They ranged in ages from 12 years old to over 80 years old. There have been 11-15 each weekend after. I had a couple women stop me and ask when the tomatoes will be ready. The folks that walk the downtown area during the day are very excited and grateful to have fresh vegetables to add to their diet. If you would like to join us, we are at the garden every Saturday from 9-noon. No experience necessary. Equipment and water will be provided. It's a big garden with over 27 raised beds and we need many hands to make light work. Come join us as we play in the dirt, have some great laughs, and provide necessary fresh vegetables to an area of Rockford that has only a couple convenience stores available within walking distance to people who have no accessible means of transportation. Thank you all for the continued support you give to Jeremiah Development. You are making a difference in the lives of the people that live and work in this area!

Thank you so much Court Street United Methodist for supporting and playing such a big role in "Love Rockford 2018." the use of the Church Building, financial support, and all the volunteers are what made this event such a success! Thank you!!!

SABBATH REST

The counterpart to the problem of squandering our time is the problem of busyness. Just as we are called to let go of our time rather than hoard or waste it, we must also refrain from trying to pack too much into the time we have. God doesn’t want us to chase after the clock. Christ is not flattered when we run madly about, trying to accomplish more than we have time for. Simply put, I believe it is a sin to hassle our hurried schedules in the name of Jesus. To trade our neuroses for what we suppose to be God’s neuroses is foolish indeed. Rushing to church is no evidence of a surrendered life. Pushing to do more “stuff” - even “Christian stuff” - is not relinquishment.

To be sure, God’s perfect plan for his people involves work. Doing the work God has for us is part of living a life of obedience. But work ceases to be obedience when we are doing too much of it. For God’s plan also involves rest. Rest is part of his desire for us. “Sabbath” is his gift to us. God’s rest must bring to an end our chasing after the clock.

To relinquish our time is to welcome the cessation of hurriedness - even Christian hurriedness. To let go of our schedules is to make our lives a Sabbath of peace wherein God replaces our tick-tocks and vibrations and ulcers with a practiced life of service.

“Sabbath” is what we gain when we let go of schedules....We must let go of hurriedness to take hold of health. We must let go of time and take hold of his wonderful peace. When our pointless panic is gone, serenity becomes God’s gift to us.

- Calvin Miller, The Power of Letting Go
